RE: Adams v. Crowley, Case No. 1:04-cv-1565 (SLR);
Adams v. Genesis, Case No. 1:06-cv-00364 (SLR)

Dear Judge Robinson:

We represent Arlin M. Adams, Chapter 11 Trustee of the post-confirmation bankruptcy estates of Coram Healthcare Corporation and Coram, Inc. On Monday, August 27, 2007, the Trustee, defendant Daniel D. Crowley and Genesis Insurance Co. participated in a voluntary mediation of the claims in the above matters with the Honorable Diane M. Welsh (Ret.) The mediation resulted in the parties entering into a settlement in principle of these actions and other related cases pending in the United States District Court for the District of Colorado and in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. The settlement is subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, which will be sought promptly after the formal settlement agreement is executed.

In view of the above, the parties jointly request that the trial in the Adams v. Crowley action scheduled to commence on September 17, 2007 be continued, and the pre-trial conference scheduled for September 5, 2007 be adjourned, to allow the parties sufficient time to finalize the settlement agreement and seek Bankruptcy Court approval and that consideration of all pending matters in the action, including the motions for summary judgment, be stayed.

Please contact me if you require any further information in consideration of our request.

Respectfully,

Richard A. Barkasy
